

A collage of three images. The top image shows a clear blue sky with several colorful streaks (blue, yellow, red, green) trailing from the bottom left towards the top right. The middle image shows a group of elderly men, likely veterans, sitting in a row. They are wearing military uniforms with various medals and ribbons. The bottom image shows a large crowd of people, mostly women, dressed in traditional Chinese clothing (qipaos) in various colors (red, yellow, blue, green). They are standing in rows, possibly at a formal event or ceremony.
